

MASSIMILIANO SORRENTINO

Head of Site Remediation

Born in 1976.

Degree in 2002 in Environmental Engineering at the Federico II University of Naples-IT, in 2003 he begins his professional career at the Volturno River Authority as Hydraulic Engineer.

In 2005 he joins Kuwait Petroleum as Technical Support for the decommissioning of a Refinery and Petrochemical complex in Italy. Within the same area, taking on roles of increasing responsibility, he is assigned, over the years, to manage the brownfield remediation and urban development projects. In 2016 he moves to the Logistic & Operations Department, as maintenance and investment projects coordinator.

From 2020 to 2022 he assumes the role of Oil Terminal Manager with responsibility on Safety & Environment, Operations & Maintenance, Planning & Reporting.

In 2022 he joins Tal Oil Transalpine Pipeline Group as Chief Health, Safety, Security and Environment Officer until 2024.

In January 2025 he joins Pirelli as Head of Site Remediation.

Last revised: 13 Jan 2025