

MAURA CAMPRA

Standing Auditor

Born 1961.

Graduated in Economics at the Faculty of Economics of the University of Turin.

She has been enrolled on the Turin Register of Chartered Accountants since 1995 and on the Register of Auditors since 1999.

She has been ordinary professor of Business Economics at the Faculty of Economics (now Department of Studies for Economics and Business) of the University of Eastern Piedmont "Amedeo Avogadro" since 2002.

Since 2019, she has also been President of the Master's degree course in Administration, Profession and People at the University of Eastern Piedmont.

She is a member of the Control and Auditing System Commission of the National Council of Chartered Accountants and Accounting Experts.

Coordinator of the Scientific Committee of the Scuola di Alta Formazione del Piemonte e della Valle d'Aosta since 2023.

She is currently part of the Management Control Committee of Intesa San Paolo S.p.A., sole Statutory Auditor of CO.GE.FA. S.r.l. and member of the Board of Directors of the Fondazione Picatti Milanese of Turin.

She is currently a member of the Scientific Committee of the journals "Il controllo nelle società e negli enti" and "Il nuovo diritto delle società" and of the series "Ricerche aziendali" and "Accounting".

She is the author of numerous scientific publications for national and international journals in which she has dealt with a variety of topics, with particular regard to the application of international accounting standards and financial and non-financial reporting.

Last revised: 8 May 2026