

TERESA NADDEO

Standing Auditor

Born in 1958.

After a degree in Economics and Business at the University of Turin, she began her career at Arthur Andersen & Co. (now, Deloitte) with auditing duties in the Financial and Banking sectors, until she took up the position of manager responsible for the financial statements and auditing in leading Italian banking institutions. Then she left the audit sector in order to take on the role of Finance and Control Director in a leading Asset Management group.

As Official Auditor and Chartered Accountant since 1996, she has started her own firm and continued dealing with banking and financial intermediaries with expertise in regulatory, supervisory, compliance and risk management fields.

Since 2014 she has dedicated herself, with increasing commitment, to the roles of independent director and statutory auditor in listed and unlisted companies.

By Decree of the Ministry of Economy and Finance dated 12 January 2026, she was authorized as sustainability auditor, effective as of 17 December 2025.

She currently holds five roles as director and statutory auditor, three of which are in the leading listed companies (Pirelli S.p.A., Webuild S.p.A. and Banca Mediolanum S.p.A.).

Last revised: 8 May 2026